Ceremonies of the Heart

Hello, I am Reverend Debra A. Viola, or as many of my clients and friends call me; Rev. Deb. I am an Ordained Interfaith Minister of Spiritual Counseling and Healing, and a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and therapist. My associates and I specialize in heart centered & personalized wedding ceremonies that reflect your love, beliefs & life. One of the things that our couples love most about our services is our attention to the personal aspects, those details that make you two a unique couple!

We specialize in all types of ceremonies; Religious, Spiritual, Interfaith, civil and secular.

A Wedding is a sacred loving union that should express who you are as an individual couple. Marriage tells the world we are family like no other! We have always supported and embraced marriage equality and we believe all people should be free to marry the person that they love. Love is love no matter who you are, and any expression of that love is a blessing to this world!

We can create a Wedding or Commitment Ceremony that reflects your values, your beliefs, and your unique love. Let us help you create a ceremony that will live in your hearts forever.

We can provide you with reading selections, choices of ceremony segments, vows, music, and more. Together we will create a unique and personalized ceremony especially for you two.

We also have Minister & Rabbi teams available
